County Court convened Monday Presiding Judge Hicks and associate Judges Holliday and Haskins and surveyor Wallace from out of town were present.

The State Normal School at Springfield was most prosperous last year, enrolling 1707. The prospects are excellent, for the opening, September tenth. Good crops will more than offset the bad effects of the war. Good boarding at lowest prices. Best accommodations and best opportunities for the cost. This is the time for all to make the most of such opportunities to prepare for the coming demands. Sound education is the best investment.

FOR SALE.
Two eight month's old high grade Short Horn bull calves, Call, phone or write.
T. F. WILLIAMS, Kisse Mills, Mo. 44.

SCHOOL NOTES.
The School building is being got in readiness for next Monday.
Pupils who failed to get their books on the days set for that purpose can get them Monday afternoon after the High School pupils have been waited on.

High School pupils will come for registration and classification from eight to nine o'clock Monday morning. Assembly will be called at 10 o'clock. Visitors are welcome.

Unless the playground is cleaned up before Monday pupils should be careful about coming to school barefoot as there are glass, cans, burrs, et al on the ground.

There will be pupils in school who will have to work on Saturdays and at odd jobs to help pay their way. Will people who can help to find these pupils to find work of any kind please do so by informing me of the work. Do your bit. This is one way and a fine one.

Sunday School Leaders at Forsyth
The leaders on the Sunday School touring party reached Forsyth Sunday afternoon about four o'clock. An earnest congregation assembled on the court house lawn to hear the message they had to bring. Rev. Mills introduced Mr. Stafford of Hurley, Missouri, as the first speaker. Mr. Stafford has given up a very successful and flourishing business in order to devote his time to Sunday School work. In his talk he dwelt upon the opportunity for service and the joy and satisfaction that comes from doing a work that is worth while. His talk was appreciated by all present.

Mr. Williams was the second speaker. His talk reached the hearts of the listeners as he pleaded for a life of devotion and of service. He appealed to the audience not to think that circumstances or station rendered the effort of any one of small importance and with earnest fervor he recited incidents that had come to his knowledge of cases where the inspiration of some one in the humbler walks of life had so shaped the course of a young man's character that he rose to a high place of useful service in the world. His purpose was to urge that each of us no matter what station we occupy devote ourselves to the uttermost to service of our fellow man. He earnestly rebuked the negative form of Christianity which satisfies itself with merely doing no evil. His talk was impressive in its sincerity and its call for positive righteousness. It is the emphatic stand of such men that will restore the church to its place of leadership in the struggle for justice and progress. The call for right living and for service will be answered and we thank these men for the message they brought.

BUY A DODGE CAR
The Dodge Brothers car has served so well under so great a variety of conditions that its record stands as ample assurance of thorough satisfaction. Owners everywhere commend the car for its exceptionally comfortable width of seat, ease of driving and neatness of appearance. Its performance fully justifies the complete reliance placed in it by those who know. The upkeep cost has been found to be unusually low. It is an attractive car, and above all, powerful and dependable.
